SCANDAL AT SACHER!

An incredible scandal occurred yesterday at the world-famous Hotel Sacher. The whole world is watching Vienna as the police are under pressure to catch the thief of the unique recipe of the original Sacher Torte.

Vienna, Austria. It was 4:15 in the morning when the emergency call came in to the police. Hilda P., a long-time cleaner at Hotel Sacher, was the first to notice the theft:

"When I saw the broken door in the office, I already knew that something was wrong. They certainly weren't after money - after all, we have a priceless recipe in the house here!".

Ms P.'s suspicions were confirmed a short time later when the loss of the original recipe for the Viennese Sachertorte was discovered. Since then, the police have been following up hundreds of tips, Viennese citizens are horrified and want to help, as does Mr H.: "Simply unbelievable. As a Viennese, you feel that your honour has been directly violated!

Unfortunately, there is no "hot lead" so far - the police are groping in the dark.

Police spokesman Günther U. asks the population for help: "Keep your eyes open! We are all affected here - every tip can be crucial!".
